

Hotel Fact Sheet

Rosewood Le Guanahani St. Barth is a haven of casual luxury, comfort and elegance, cherished for its authentic reflection of the islands. Within this captivating landscape, vibrantly hued guest cottages are scattered along garden paths that wind through lush bougainvillea, hibiscus, and palms beside the sweeping beaches and reef-protected lagoon.

Location

Spanning 18 acres, Rosewood Le Guanahani St. Barth is nestled on a lush and secluded private peninsula overlooking two stunning beaches. One has access to the lagoon (Anse de Grand Cul-de-Sac) and the other one to the ocean (Anse Marechal), giving guests two unique water experiences.

The resort is located within the Réserve de Grand Cul-de-Sac where the underwater and land ecosystems are preserved, creating a unique environment ideal for snorkeling, hiking and other outdoor pursuits.

The property is located 12 minutes from Remy De Haenen International Airport (SBH) and 15 minutes from the capital Gustavia where the marina is located.

Rosewood Explorers

Rosewood Explorers is a children's club designed for guests between the ages of four to eleven years old. In keeping with Rosewood's guiding philosophy of A Sense of Place®, the program offers a variety of activities that tap into the destination's environment and heritage, with an aim to inspire children's creativity and social responsibility through fun and adventure. Rosewood Explorers is housed in a dedicated facility offering both indoor and outdoor areas.

Recreation

Rosewood Le Guanahani St. Barth is the only full-service resort on the island, offering an unparalleled selection of guest activities, amenities and services that showcase the resort's unique and authentic Sense of Place:

The resort offers a selection of complimentary water and land activities including swimming (main pool, adults only pool and beach), snorkeling, kayaking, paddle-boarding and tennis (tennis pro available upon request and for an additional fee)

Additional island activities outside of the property can be organized by our Clefs d'Or concierge:

- Water activities: jet skiing, kite surfing, boating (half or full day trip around the island), fishing
- Land activities: guided or self-led hiking, auto rentals and tours
- Cultural explorations: excursions to museums and sites around the island, including The Wall House Museum, a restored building from the Swedish period (1785-1878) and an excellent destination to learn about the history of St. Barth
- Shopping experiences: haute couture, leather goods, jewelry and watches, perfume and more can be found in Gustavia
- Other: helicopter tours
