

PALÁCIO TANGARÁ
SÃO PAULO

Welcome

Welcome

As you cross the gates of Palácio Tangará, passing through the alley with all the imperial palm trees, you will enter a world of classic elegance, surrounded by the exuberant nature of the Burle Marx Park. Outside, we have the vibrant city of São Paulo, the financial and cultural capital of Brazil. Here our guests will enjoy the luxury of an oasis of tranquility. Palácio Tangará, one of the exclusive Masterpiece hotels of the Oetker Collection, combines the charm of refined European hospitality with Brazilian friendliness and warmth.

Destination

Well known as a business destination, the city also reveals a cosmopolitan and vibrant life, offering a rich cultural scene, a unique mix of museums, art galleries, local and international cuisine, as well as a variety of entertainment choices. The Burle Marx Park, in the surroundings of the Hotel, provides a brief display of the beauty and exuberance of the tropical forest.

Urban Oasis

Hotel

A striking feature of Palácio Tangará is the fact that it is embraced by the exuberant vegetation of Parque Burle Marx. Its spacious environments, designed for relaxation, surrounded by green, make this Palace a true urban oasis amidst the frenzy of São Paulo. This feeling of refinement is enhanced by the generous heated pools, the spa and fitness center, in addition to the refined cuisine. The days with plenty of natural light and the mild evenings will provide even more charm and elegance to your moments with us.

Accommodations

With 141 spacious rooms, including 59 suites, with balconies or terraces and invigorating views of the green, allowing our guests to relax and feel integrated with nature. Generous interiors with plenty of natural light, combined with the warm decor, give the rooms a home away from home feeling. The team of Brazilian architects and designers created environments of discreet luxury, with a lot of personality, offering a balance between modern and classic. The attentive governance team is always ready and available to delight our guests.

Gastronomy

The internationally renowned Chef Jean George Vongrichen opens his first address in South America at Palácio Tangará. Its cuisine, with a mild Asian influence, now gains a Brazilian touch brought by the executive chef Filipe Rizzato. Our Tangará Jean-George's restaurant, with a chef's table and private dining; the cozy Pateo do Palácio, open all day; the Pool Bar, surrounded by the green; our beautiful wine cellar and the Burle Bar with its intimate style, harmonize the gastronomic experience. The vast terraces that surround these environments, overlooking Burle Marx Park, make up this invigorating scenario.

Jean-Georges

TANGARÁ JEAN-GEORGES

The world-renowned chef Jean Georges Vongerichten runs his only address in South America, at Palácio Tangará, inspired by subtle touches of Asian cuisine, and now combined with Brazilian elements. The Tangará Jean-George's restaurant features an exclusive Chef's table and private dining with an outdoor terrace in the middle of Burle Marx Park and an elegant wine cellar. Here, it is possible to taste the Chef's unique creations, either in the a la Carte menu or in the tasting menu that is served in six courses and paired with the best wines in the world, by our sommeliers.

PATEO DO PALÁCIO

On an outdoor terrace overlooking Burle Marx Park and with plenty of fruit trees, Pateo do Palácio invites you to taste the creations of chefs Jean-Georges Vongrichen and Felipe Rizzato throughout the day. Enjoy breakfast, lunch, evening tea, dinner or simply stop by for a happy hour in a refined, open-air environment, with live music. The hotel also has a Pool Bar and a 24-hour In Room Dining service.

Spa

The Flora Spa is a spacious temple dedicated to beauty and relaxation where facials, body treatments and therapeutic massages will awaken the senses. Drawing inspiration from the nature around us, our spa, with its six elegant treatment rooms, is the ideal retreat for relaxation. This true Oasis also offers a semi-Olympic indoor heated pool, Japanese tub, dry and steam saunas, and a gym with state-of-the-art equipment, creating a unique environment for your well-being.

Events

The Tangará Palace is unique in São Paulo. The classic elegance of its sumptuous halls combined with the exuberant vegetation that surrounds it make up the perfect setting for your most prestigious events - from unforgettable weddings and glamorous social gatherings to corporate meetings and events. Our nine elegant rooms, filled with natural light, bring your event closer to the nature of Burle Marx Park, making it even more exclusive.
